Most Essential of Eight

Dr. Anne Coull, UNSW, Australia

The Australian Signals Directorate recommends eight essential cyber security risk mitigations. It claims that applying these will reduce an organization's cyber security risk by as much as 85%. Implementing the Essential 8 is a significant undertaking.

Where should an organization start? Which of the Essential Eight will give the biggest benefit? This Tutorial discusses these essential mitigations, assessing their benefits and challenges to help organizations to better understand where to begin.